Spring concert sings in season

On Thursday, April 27, the school will celebrate a year of music with its Spring Concert at 6:30 p.m. in the gym.

Each class, the school choir and its musicians have been practicing for their showcase event as the season warms up and the school year starts to wrap up.

"We'll have a variety (of songs)," music teacher Miss Kater said. "Most of the music will be what we've done in class. A lot of it will be taken from American folk music and be familiar."

"Polly Wolly Doodle" by the third grade is an example to listen for, she said.

Miss Kater chose most of the songs, but the kids have their voice, too, particularly choosing the movements that go with their music.
